CHAIRMAN AND PRINCIPAL OWNER
MARK ATTANASIO

The 2018 season is the 14th for Mark Attanasio as chairman and principal owner of the Milwaukee Brewers.

Attanasio is overseeing the continued organizational transition that began during the 2015 season with the ultimate goal of bringing a World Series championship to Milwaukee. Last season was an exciting one that showed tangible progress on this objective with an 86-win campaign.

The Club's investments in the baseball operations department have been focused on obtaining and developing young impact players. As a result, over the past two years, the team has built one of the strongest minor-league systems in all of Major League Baseball.

Attanasio continues to work diligently to uphold each of the four cornerstone pledges he made to the Brewers and community when he bought the team 13 years ago:

1. FIELDING A PERENNIALLY COMPETITIVE TEAM

Attanasio has worked closely with General Manager David Stearns and Manager Craig Counsell, as well as the baseball operations staff, to build a sustainable inflow of new players to join the team's veteran talent.

Building on last season's success, the Brewers have added two top-rated outfielders for 2018. Lorenzo Cain returns to the organization under a long-term contract after winning a world championship, ALCS MVP, and being named an All-Star. Rising star Christian Yelich, 26, was obtained in a trade with the Marlins, and has won both a Silver Slugger and a Gold Glove Award.

The 2018 season will continue the strategy of focusing on the acquisition, development and retention of young players who can excel at the athletic and aggressive style of play that has been established by Craig Counsell. Significant investments will continue in scouting and player development through advanced technology, talent evaluation and analytics, as well as in acquiring top talent through the amateur draft, international market, trades and free agency.

2. DELIVERING THE BEST FAN EXPERIENCE POSSIBLE, WHETHER AT MILLER PARK, THROUGH BROADCASTS OR OVER THE INTERNET

Attanasio continues to appreciate the unwavering support and enthusiasm of Brewers fans and remains committed to providing them with the best fan experience possible. The Brewers have drawn more than 2.5 million fans at Miller Park in 10 of the last 11 seasons. The Club secured the 10th-highest total attendance in baseball last season (2,558,722).

In 2017, the Brewers unveiled the single-largest Miller Park fan experience upgrade in the history of the facility with a complete overhaul of its food and beverage operations, including the introduction of many of Milwaukee's favorite restaurants – Zaffiro's Pizza, Smoke Shack Barbeque, A.J. Bombers and Holey Moley Donuts – in addition to an expanded lineup of the usual favorites along with three new bar areas. This project earned the 2017 Ballpark Digest Award for Best New Concessions Experience.

New for 2018, the PNC Club Level will be renovated to include a redesign and modernization of the aesthetic for the corridor, two new food destinations and a hospitality station. In addition, there will be a new kids play area on the Terrace Level and a renovation of the main team store on the Field Level.

These and other offseason projects will continue to improve what is consistently rated a top fan environment in Major League Baseball.

3. REMAINING A LEADER IN THE COMMUNITY

Attanasio remains committed to and personally involved with Brewers Community Foundation (BCF), the charitable arm of the Club, as it continues to grow since its 2010 rebranding. BCF raised more than $3 million during 2017. Over the past eight years, BCF has provided over 1,600 grants totaling more than $12 million to nonprofit organizations across Wisconsin that support programs focused on its four areas of concentration: health, education, recreation and basic needs. In addition to fans' support of the Foundation, nearly all uniformed Brewers players, their families, and executives of the Club's front office staff contributed their time or financial resources to BCF in 2017.

4. BEING AN ORGANIZATION WHERE PEOPLE WANT TO WORK, WHETHER ON THE FIELD OR BEHIND THE SCENES

Attanasio has continued to deliver on his commitment to make the Brewers organization one of the best places to work in Greater Milwaukee as well as in all of sports. During his 13 years as principal owner, the Club has grown as a desirable destination for some of baseball's top players, front office personnel and business executives.

Under Attanasio's leadership, the corporate culture has focused on best practices and achieving excellent results across all areas of the Club. This includes providing employees with training and career development as well as opportunities to participate in the Club's community outreach efforts.

BEYOND THE BREWERS

In addition to his role as chairman and principal owner, Attanasio has been an accomplished investment management executive for more than 25 years. He is a managing partner of Crescent Capital Group, Inc., an employee-owned Los Angeles-based asset management firm, which he co-founded in 1991.

Attanasio holds positions on several not-for-profit boards in Milwaukee as well as elsewhere around the U.S., including the Board of Trustees of Heal the Bay, The Los Angeles County Museum of Art (LACMA) and Harvard-Westlake School. In addition, Attanasio is a member of Major League Baseball's Executive Council, Labor Policy Committee, Revenue Sharing Definitions Committee, and is Chairman of its Investment Committee. He is a member of LA28, the bid committee that successfully secured the 2028 Summer Olympic Games in Los Angeles. Attanasio is also an investor in the Milwaukee Admirals of the American Hockey League.

Attanasio received his A.B. from Brown University and his J.D. from the Columbia University School of Law. He and his wife, Debbie, have two sons.

CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER
RICK SCHLESINGER

Rick Schlesinger is entering his 16th season with the Milwaukee Brewers and eighth as chief operating officer. He was named to his current position on January 24, 2011 after previously serving as executive vice president of business operations. Schlesiner oversees the Club's business affairs, including finance, human resources, information technology, legal, sponsorships, marketing, ticketing, communications, broadcasting and non-baseball special events.

In nearly every aspect of the business, the Brewers have eclipsed records during Schlesinger's tenure. In 2017, over 2.5 million fans attended games at Miller Park, representing the 10th time in the last 11 seasons that the organization has exceeded the 2.5 million attendance mark. Additionally, the team has sold in excess of 2.3 million tickets for 12 consecutive seasons, making the Brewers one of just nine teams to reach that level each year since 2006.

Under Schlesinger's guidance, the Club has enhanced the fan experience at Miller Park on numerous fronts. The latest upgrade for 2018 includes a renovation of the PNC Club Level concourse, which serves as a popular destination for suite patrons and ticket buyers. Last season, the Brewers initiated a complete transformation of the food and beverage hospitality experience, which marked the largest Club-funded project in the history of Miller Park. Those efforts were honored with the 2017 Ballpark Digest Award for Best New Concessions Experience.

Over the years, the Brewers have expanded their reach into the community to include the rebranding of Brewers Community Foundation, Inc. and the introduction of several new initiatives to benefit area causes.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Schlesinger served as vice president, business and legal affairs/assistant general manager for the Anaheim Angels from 1998-2002 after previously working in motion picture development and production for Walt Disney Pictures and Television.

Schlesinger is actively involved in several charitable and community activities, including membership on the University of Wisconsin-Madison Department of History Board of Visitors.

A Phi Beta Kappa graduate from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1983, Schlesinger received his Juris Doctor from Harvard Law School (cum laude) in 1986. After graduating from Harvard, he spent six years at the Los Angeles law firm of Latham and Watkins before joining Disney.

Schlesinger is a native of Bayside, Wisconsin, and resides in Oconomowoc with his wife, Kate. They have five children: Bradley, Sam, Katie, Molly, and Mathieu.

GENERAL MANAGER
DAVID STEARNS

David Stearns, 33, was named Brewers general manager on September 21, 2015, becoming the ninth GM in franchise history. He officially began his position on October 5, 2015.

Since becoming general manager at age 30, Stearns has implemented an approach to acquire, develop and retain young, controllable talent across all levels of the organization with the goal of making an impact at the Major League level.

This past offseason, the team signed All-Star outfielder Lorenzo Cain to a five-year contract and acquired outfielder Christian Yelich, a 2014 Gold Glove Award winner and 2016 Silver Slugger recipient, in a trade with Miami. On the pitching front, the Brewers signed right-handers Matt Albers, Jhoulys Chacín and Yovani Gallardo, along with left-handed reliever Boone Logan via free agency. The Club also agreed to a two-year contract extension with starting pitcher Chase Anderson with club options for 2020 and 2021.

Under Stearns and manager Craig Counsell, the Brewers have increased their win total in each of their first two full seasons (2016-17). Last season, the Brewers' 13-game win improvement from the previous season (73 wins in 2016; 86 wins in 2017) tied for the fourth-best increase in the majors.

Third baseman Travis Shaw, who earned 2017 team MVP honors, enjoyed a breakout season in his first season in Milwaukee as he batted .273 with 31 HR and 101 RBI after being acquired from Boston at the 2016 Winter Meetings. Fellow newcomer, first baseman/outfielder Eric Thames, tied Shaw for the team lead with 31 homers. As a team, the 2017 Brewers led their league in home runs (224, tied) and stolen bases (128) in the same season for just the second time in franchise history (also in 2012 with 202 HR and 158 SB).

Prior to joining the Brewers, Stearns spent three seasons (2013-15) with the Houston Astros as assistant general manager. In that role, he was a key member of the management team, focusing on all areas of baseball operations, including analytics, administration, player development and scouting.

During his tenure with Houston, the Astros put together one of Major League Baseball's most dramatic turnarounds in recent history as they went from 51 wins in 2013 to 70 in 2014 and 86 in 2015 to clinch a Wild Card berth.

SENIOR ADVISOR

DOUG MELVIN

Doug Melvin joined the Brewers on September 26, 2002 as the eighth general manager in Club history. On May 8, 2012, the team announced a contract extension through 2015 along with a promotion to president of baseball operations and general manager.

Melvin, 65, now serves as senior advisor with the organization. On August 11, 2015, Melvin and the team announced that he would transition into his current role following the 2015 season, his 20th as a general manager in the Major Leagues.

During his 13-year tenure as general manager of the Brewers, Melvin had 1,024 regular-season wins and two postseason berths, including a 2011 National League Central Division championship. During a 10-year stretch from 2005-14, the Brewers recorded the second-most wins (821) in the NL Central division.

Melvin was named 2011 Major League Executive of the Year by Baseball America after the team won a franchise-record 96 games on the way to its first division title since 1982. In addition, he was awarded Co-Executive of the Year honors by The Sporting News that season along with Detroit's Dave Dombrowski.

In 2008, Melvin helped bring the franchise its first postseason berth in 26 years as the team finished 90-72 to capture the National League Wild Card. The midseason acquisition of CC Sabathia from Cleveland was key to the 2008 postseason run and will go down as one of the biggest trades in franchise history.

In 2007, the team posted its first winning record since 1992 as it went 83-79 and finished just 2.0 games behind the Cubs in the National League Central Division. That offseason, Melvin added veterans who played key roles in 2008, including outfielder Mike Cameron, catcher Jason Kendall and pitcher Salomon Torres.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Melvin was the general manager of the Texas Rangers from October 10, 1994 through 2001. He helped the Rangers earn their first postseason appearance ever in 1996. Under his direction, the team won the American League West three times. Melvin was hired in Texas by former President George W. Bush and former United States Ambassador to Japan Tom Schieffer.

Before joining the Rangers, Melvin spent nine years in the Baltimore Orioles organization as a special assistant to Owner Edward Bennett Williams and President Larry Lucchino, beginning in 1986. He became director of player personnel in charge of minor league operations in November 1987 and added the title of assistant general manager under Executive Vice President and General Manager Roland Hemond in 1988.

Melvin worked for the New York Yankees from 1979-85 following his retirement as an active player. He pitched batting practice and coordinated advance scouting reports for the Major League coaching staff, earning a promotion to scouting director in 1985. In that role, he and Fred Ferreira were responsible for signing five-time All-Star center fielder Bernie Williams.

Highly decorated, Melvin was named American League Executive of the Year by Baseball America in 1996 and Major League Executive of the Year by the same publication in 1998 and 2011. He also earned that award from The Sporting News in 1996 and 2011. Melvin was awarded National League Executive of the Year twice by the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum (2008 and 2011). He was inducted into the Canadian Baseball Hall of Fame in 2012, and is also a member of the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame (1997) and the Chatham, Ontario, Sports Hall of Fame (2000). On July 21, 2018, Melvin will be added to the Brewers Wall of Honor.

Melvin is one of only five Canadian natives to ever serve as a Major League general manager, joining George Selkirk (Washington), Murray Cook (New York-AL, Montreal and Cincinnati), Gord Ash (Toronto) and Alex Anthopoulos (Toronto and Atlanta). Ash is currently the vice president of baseball projects with the Brewers.

As a player, Melvin pitched for six seasons in the minor leagues for the Pirates and Yankees, going 29-19 with a 3.43 ERA. He was signed by Pittsburgh in 1972 and pitched two years in their farm system. After sitting out 1974 with a leg injury, he was signed by the Yankees by Pat Gillick and played four more years.

The Chatham, Ontario native played football, basketball and hockey at Chatham Kent Secondary School and was selected to the school's Athletic Hall of Fame. Melvin still holds the school's basketball record with 55 points in one game. He played in a number of amateur baseball leagues in his hometown and credits another Chatham native, Hall of Famer Ferguson Jenkins, with influencing him to pursue his pro baseball career.

Doug and his wife, Ellen, have been visible in the community, supporting local breast cancer and research prevention programs with personal donations and fundraising through multiple charities.

Doug and Ellen have two children, Ashley and Cory. Cory spent seven seasons with the Brewers organization as a professional scout and currently scouts for the Yankees. Ashley works with the Wounded Warrior Project.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS

MILLER PARK

The Milwaukee Brewers take pride in offering the best overall experience for every fan who attends a game. Central to the quality of the fan experience is the team's jewel of a ballpark, Miller Park.

Year in and year out, the Brewers' fan experience has received honors from both fans and media in annual polling and surveys. In 2014, Miller Park was voted as MLB's best ballpark in The Sporting News' Best Ballpark Bracket. Earlier in 2014, the home of the Brewers finished 10th out of all 122 ranked teams in the category of "Stadium Experience" and 15th overall in "Affordability" in ESPN the Magazine's annual "Ultimate Standings: Fan Satisfaction Rankings." In 2012, a fan vote on ESPN.com was another to rate Miller Park as "Major League Baseball's Best Ballpark."

Over 2.5 million fans attended games at Miller Park in 2017, representing the 10th time in the last 11 seasons that the team has exceeded this attendance mark. The Brewers have sold in excess of 2.3 million tickets for 12 consecutive seasons, becoming one of just nine teams to reach that level every year since 2006.

One of the keys to Miller Park's popularity is that it is a dynamic facility that has adapted to changing fan tastes each season. The latest upgrade for 2018 includes a renovation of the PNC Club Level concourse, which serves as a popular destination for suite patrons and ticket buyers. The project features a redesign and modernization to the corridor, including large wall graphics commemorating various moments in Miller Park history, along with a hospitality station and new dining options. These latest improvements are a continuation of annual upgrades to the Brewers' majestic home.

In 2017, the Brewers initiated a complete transformation of the food and beverage hospitality experience at Miller Park, which marked the largest Club-funded project in the history of Miller Park. Those efforts were honored with the 2017 Ballpark Digest Award for Best New Concessions Experience, presented by Ballpark Digest. The project encompassed an architectural redesign throughout the ballpark, including a total of 11 concession stands in the new "First Base Ward" and "Third Base Ward" on the Field Level and two new Field Level full-service bars with a variety of MillerCoors offerings and views of the field. The construction and rebranding of new stands, spanning all seating levels of the ballpark, leverages the rich architectural history of Milwaukee. Another element of the redesign is the "Local Brews" Bar on the right-field side of the Loge Level. This gathering spot features an expanded beer program with 30 taps serving craft beers from across Wisconsin for fans to enjoy.

New additions at Miller Park in 2016 included an enhanced U.S. Cellular Power Playground kids' area, a renovated Home Plate Team Store and a new executive suite for hosting meetings and entertaining at games. In 2015, the signature project was "The Selig Experience," a state-of-the-art attraction honoring former Brewers Owner and Commissioner Emeritus, Hall of Famer Allan H. (Bud) Selig. A highlight of the Experience is a multimedia presentation that tells the story of Selig's role in saving Major League Baseball in Milwaukee, his successful efforts to bring the Brewers to the city and his tireless efforts to promote and grow the game in his hometown.

The 2014 season brought the Brewers Wall of Honor, a new Bob Uecker "Last Row Statue" and the expansion of the Brewers Team Store by Majestic. Updates to the ballpark in 2013 included the Miller Lite Deck and renovations to the Johnsonville Party Deck and the SKYY Lounge on the Club Level. In 2011, the Brewers debuted a state-of-the-art, high-definition scoreboard at Miller Park. At 5,940 square feet, it is one of the largest scoreboards in Major League Baseball and was also the third true 1080 high-definition scoreboard in baseball.

Other major updates to the ballpark over the years include the Brewers Team Store on the Club Level (2012); a party suite honoring the 2011 Brewers (2012); the Brewers Team Store on the Terrace Level (2009); the main Brewers Team Store by Majestic (2009); the renovation of 43 Club Level suites (2009); the renovation of the Johnson Controls Stadium Club (2008); the Northwestern Mutual Legends Club (2007) and the Aurora Health Care Bullpen (2007).

Miller Park's debut dates to April 6, 2001. In front of the President of the United States, the Commissioner of Baseball and many more dignitaries, the Milwaukee Brewers and Cincinnati Reds christened Miller Park in a thrilling game, culminating with a game-winning home run from Richie Sexson in the bottom of the eighth inning. On that day, President George W. Bush became the first sitting president to attend a professional sporting event in the state of Wisconsin. He, along with Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, threw out ceremonial first pitches prior to the game.

Built to accommodate a variety of events, Miller Park is not only the home to Brewers baseball. In its inaugural 2001 season, the park played host to a pair of major concerts, the George Strait Country Music Festival in May and a show by the band 'N Sync in July. Both concerts drew more than 34,000 fans each and earned rave reviews from the performers and fans alike.

This was just the beginning. In 2003, legendary rocker Bruce Springsteen brought his E Street Band to Miller Park for the first time for a memorable performance in front of more than 30,000 fans. The ballpark also hosted the filming of the movie Mr. 3000, starring Bernie Mac and Angela Bassett, as well as the Miller Lite Masters Professional Bowlers Association Finals and one of the Midwest's largest youth chess tournaments.

In August 2005, Miller Park played host to the 150th birthday party for its namesake, the Miller Brewing Company. A mini-village was built on the field along with a stage where rocker Bon Jovi played to a capacity crowd. In 2008, H.O.G. (the Harley Owners Group) celebrated its 25th anniversary with a spectacular rally of 45,000 motorcycle enthusiasts and a concert, featuring Kid Rock, in the Miller Park parking lots. In October 2010, Miller Park hosted the 25th Anniversary Farm Aid Benefit Concert, featuring performances by such luminaries as Neil Young, Willie Nelson, Dave Matthews and John Mellencamp.

In 2013, Miller Park hosted two sold-out concerts, Kenny Chesney's No Shoes Nation Tour and Paul McCartney's Out There Tour. Miller Park accommodated an international soccer showdown of elite clubs in 2014 as Swansea City A.F.C of the English Premier League faced Chivas of Mexico's Liga MX. Soccer returned to Miller Park the following July with a friendly competition between Atlas Futbol Club from the Mexican Liga MX and Newcastle Football Club of the English Premier League. Also in 2015, boy band sensation One Direction rocked the venue during their On the Road Again Tour.

In 2016, Kenny Chesney returned to Miller Park as part of his Spread the Love Tour. Chesney will headline Miller Park for the third time on Saturday, April 28 for his "Trip Around the Sun" tour. Joining Chesney will be country stars Thomas Rhett, Old Dominion and Brandon Lay. Additionally, pop star Ed Sheeran will hold a concert at Miller Park on October 23, 2018.

Miller Park has drawn over 43 million visitors to baseball games in its first 17 seasons, highlighted by a record 3,071,373 for Brewers baseball in 2011, which established the all-time Milwaukee baseball record for attendance.

The ballpark's history includes hosting the 73rd Major League Baseball All-Star Game in 2002, Milwaukee's third All-Star contest and its first since 1975. It was also home to playoff games in 2008 and 2011 as the Brewers advanced to the postseason.

HELFAER FIELD: WISCONSIN'S PREMIER YOUTH BASEBALL FACILITY

The Milwaukee Brewers joined with the Southeast Wisconsin Professional Baseball Park District Board and the Evan and Marion Helfaer Foundation to build Helfaer Field, the home of Wisconsin's finest youth baseball facility. Designed by Eppstein-Uhen Architects of Milwaukee, the facility was built on the site of County Stadium by Hunzinger Construction, the company that built the original County Stadium and part of the team that built Miller Park.

The $3.1 million facility was built with the help of a $2 million charitable grant from the Helfaer Foundation as well as $1.1 million from the Miller Park infrastructure budget.

Featuring 502 bleacher seats and additional concourse seating of 220, this is the premier location for youth baseball and softball leagues to host their games and tournaments. The fences reach 200 feet with walls six-feet high, with the exception of left field, where the wall is nine feet. The playing surface of Helfaer Field was also replaced in October 2008, giving Little Leaguers the same playing surface that the big leaguers play on inside Miller Park.

The foul poles of County Stadium have been used at Helfaer Field, and the area where home plate existed in the old ballpark has been memorialized on the third base concourse.

The Evan and Marion Helfaer Foundation was founded on February 2, 1974, and is dedicated to charitable, religious and educational purposes in Wisconsin and the Greater Milwaukee area. Mr. Helfaer was also an original investor in the Brewers.

Helfaer Field is available for organized athletic events. The emphasis is primarily to make Helfaer Field available for youth baseball (5-12) and girls softball. However, Helfaer Field is also available for other groups and uses as well.

On non-Brewers home game dates, there are up to six time slots of two hours each available for rental. On Brewers home dates, there are up to three time slots at two hours each, and the facility is available for tailgate functions up to three hours prior to games on game days. For more information on Helfaer Field reservations, check out the Club's website at Brewers.com or call (414) 902-4332.

Beginning May 27, the Milwaukee Brewers will again offer fans a free chance to enjoy Helfaer Field on Sundays. The ballpark opens 2 1/2 hours prior to the Brewers' first pitch and remains open until game time on all Sundays when the Brewers play at Miller Park during the 2018 season. Kids and adults can go out and throw the ball around in the outfield at Helfaer Field and take pictures with Bernie Brewer and the Johnsonville Famous Racing Sausages on these dates. Bats are not allowed.

SELIG EXPERIENCE

A new fan experience arrived at Miller Park in 2015: a state-of-the-art attraction to honor former Brewers Owner and Commissioner Emeritus Allan H. (Bud) Selig, who was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2017.

Known as "The Selig Experience," the exhibit is located on Miller Park's Loge Level in the left-field corner. A highlight of the attraction is a multimedia presentation that tells the story of Selig's role in saving Major League Baseball in Milwaukee, his successful efforts to bring the Brewers to the city and his tireless efforts to promote and grow the game in his hometown.

Miller Park is already known as a premier destination for baseball fans, and The Selig Experience takes that to the next level. The exhibition space totals approximately 1,400 square feet, and includes authentic artifacts from Selig's tenure as Brewers owner. It celebrates the fans' love of the game, as told through the story of the Brewers' founder.

The main multimedia show builds to a surprising 3D encounter with the Commissioner himself inside an authentic reproduction of his County Stadium office, using technology found in only a handful of exhibits around the world. After the show, fans can take a sneak peek into Selig's office.

The design and production of The Selig Experience was led by BRC Imagination Arts, an experience design firm that turns brands into destinations. For more than three decades, its masterful storytellers have been chosen by iconic brands and cultural attractions all over the world to inspire and engage their audiences.

Selig's dedication to baseball has paralleled his love of his hometown of Milwaukee. His first significant move as an executive was to return Major League Baseball to Milwaukee in 1970, when he founded the Milwaukee Brewers. In their first decade, the Brewers featured some of the great teams of that era, which eventually led to an American League pennant and World Series appearance in 1982.

During his tenure as Brewers owner, Selig earned United Press International's 1978 Executive of the Year Award, and the franchise was honored with seven "Organization of the Year" awards.

In the 1990s, Selig began his efforts to build a new ballpark in Milwaukee to replace the aging County Stadium, and Miller Park opened for its first season of play in 2001.

In 2015, the Brewers retired uniform #1 in Selig's honor, signifying his role as founder of the franchise. Additionally, Selig has been honored with a statue at Miller Park, which was unveiled on August 24, 2010.

Uihlein-Wilson Architects contributed to the initial design of the space for The Selig Experience.

MILLER PARK WALK OF FAME

The Miller Park Walk of Fame commemorates some of the greatest names in Milwaukee baseball history. It is located on the plaza area outside the ballpark near the statues of Hall of Famers Hank Aaron, Robin Yount, Commissioner Emeritus Allan H. (Bud) Selig and Bob Uecker. Each inductee is honored with a granite-shaped home plate set in the ground.

Started in Miller Park's inaugural season of 2001, the Walk of Fame has welcomed 19 inductees. Geoff Jenkins will become the 20th member when he is added this year. The first class in 2001 included Hank Aaron, Rollie Fingers, Paul Molitor and Robin Yount. In 2007, former Milwaukee Braves players were added to the ballot in an effort to honor the strong baseball tradition of the city.

BREWERS WALL OF HONOR

The Brewers Wall of Honor commemorates Milwaukee Brewers players, coaches and executives who meet a set criteria based on service to the organization and/or career accomplishments.

The Wall of Honor is a permanent exhibit on an exterior Miller Park wall adjacent to the Hot Corner entrance in left field. Honorees are recognized with a bronze plaque affixed to the wall, along with their image and a brief synopsis of their Brewers career etched onto the marker. The plaques are created by Matthews International, designers of the plaques for the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown.

"The Wall of Honor is designed to honor the many individuals who either spent a significant portion of their career with the Brewers or have a significant legacy with the organization through various achievements," said Brewers Chief Operating Officer Rick Schlesinger. "It is designed as a complement to our Miller Park Walk of Fame, as well as our statues."

The inaugural Wall of Honor class of 58 inductees was recognized during an induction ceremony at Miller Park on June 13, 2014. Honorees and their guests (as well as representatives of those who are deceased) were invited to attend the unveiling ceremonies, as well as be recognized during a program on the field prior to the game.

Beginning in 2015, any player who appeared in a game with the Brewers and served as a primary broadcaster for 20 or more seasons with the team was eligible for induction. Television analyst Bill Schroeder joined the illustrious wall that year. In 2017, Corey Hart became the 60th member to join the Wall of Honor.

On July 21, 2018, three new members will join the Wall of Honor, including Prince Fielder and former general managers Harry Dalton and Doug Melvin. Added to the criteria in 2018, an executive who spent 10 or more seasons as general manager in the organization with at least one postseason appearance is eligible for induction.

In addition to the members currently on the Wall of Honor, there are eight active players in Major League Baseball who meet the criteria. Upon retirement, those players will be added annually to the Wall of Honor. John Axford, Ryan Braun, Yovani Gallardo, Carlos Gómez, J.J. Hardy, Jonathan Lucroy, Francisco Rodríguez and Rickie Weeks are the active players who, as of today, qualify for induction into the Wall of Honor following their retirement.

Additionally, any inductee into the National Baseball Hall of Fame who played for or managed the Brewers is eligible, including 2018 Hall-of-Fame inductee Trevor Hoffman.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS IN THE COMMUNITY

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

The Milwaukee Brewers Community Relations Department is committed to supporting many worthy events and activities throughout the state of Wisconsin. The Club is pleased to give back to dedicated fans who have supported the Brewers throughout the years.

Many charities, educational groups, youth groups and nonprofit organizations raise hundreds of thousands of dollars through the support of players and auction items provided by the Milwaukee Brewers. By supporting charitable causes, the Brewers, including players, coaches, Brewers Wives and front office staff, will continue exercising a pledge to be an active member in the community and help improve the welfare of people throughout the region.

BEYOND THE DIAMOND

Beyond the Diamond is a series of community outreach events that takes place during the season. This involves partnering with players, coaches, Brewers Wives, alumni and team personnel working hands-on in the community. The community events are funded in part by Brewers Community Foundation and focus on the areas of health, education, recreation and basic needs.

AUCTION REQUESTS

The Brewers receive thousands of requests annually to assist local nonprofit organizations, community and civic groups with in-kind donations for fundraising events. Being an active and contributing member of our community, it is very important to us to make every effort to accommodate requests within our region. In our continuing efforts to "Go Green," we no longer accept written letters or fax donation requests. All donation requests must be submitted online at brewers.com/donations.

BREWERS ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Brewers Alumni Association consists of over 600 players who were members of the Milwaukee Brewers or the Club's forefathers, the Seattle Pilots, during their Major League career. The Association aims to provide an opportunity for the Club's alumni to maintain relationships with former teammates, the organization and Brewers fans.

BREWERS ON DECK

Brewers On Deck is the team's annual fan fest and season preview. Families can enjoy a day full of interactive games, clinics and autographs from players along with a Brewers Community Foundation Treasure Hunt, which features game-worn jerseys, game-used equipment and other Brewers memorabilia. All proceeds from the sale go toward Brewers Community Foundation youth recreation and education programs.

BREWERS COMMUNITY ACHIEVERS

The Brewers Community Achievers progam recognizes volunteers, philanthropists and other heroes from our community who have helped their neighborhoods in extraordinary ways. The winners of the award receive four game tickets, on-field acknowledgement, a personalized jersey, and the opportunity to throw out the ceremonial first pitch. Winners also receive a Community Achievers certificate and a gift bag filled with Brewers memorabilia.

BREWERS WIVES

Brewers Wives play an important role in our community outreach efforts with their commitment to several important causes. Each summer, the wives team up with Brewers Community Foundation to raise funds through a number of special events with proceeds earmarked for various organizations in Greater Milwaukee and Wisconsin. Several of the wives, along with their husbands, also support area children with game tickets, food vouchers and donations to youth groups.

CERVECEROS DAY PRESENTED BY AURORA HEALTH CARE

During one game each year, the Brewers pay tribute to Hispanic baseball by taking the field in Cerveceros jerseys. Cerveceros is the Spanish translation of Brewers. The annual Fiesta Tailgate, which includes bilingual PA announcements, scoreboard features and mariachi bands, gives the whole ballpark a Latin flare.

FATHERHOOD INITIATIVE DAY

Brewers staff and alumni host a group of fathers and their children at a Brewers home game. Guests enjoy watching the game in a suite, and one lucky kid throws out the ceremonial first pitch. This unique program is a tie-in with the Mayor's Fatherhood Initiative to bring together the past, present and future by raising awareness about the importance of involved, responsible and committed fathers.

AFRICAN AMERICAN HERITAGE NIGHT PRESENTED BY AURORA HEALTH CARE

As part of our African American Heritage game, Brewers players wear uniforms inspired by the Milwaukee Bears - the city's 1923 Negro National League team. The game-worn jerseys are signed by the players and auctioned online. Proceeds from the auction go to Brewers Community Foundation and are earmarked for the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum in Kansas City and Yesterday's Negro League Foundation.

REVIVING BASEBALL IN THE INNER CITY (RBI)

RBI - Reviving Baseball in the Inner City - began more than 20 years ago in Los Angeles. The Brewers have joined other Major League teams in the continuing effort to bring baseball to inner-city youth, ages 9-17. Brewers RBI teams have made it to regional competitions with the support of the Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Milwaukee and funding from Brewers Community Foundation.

RBI ATHLETE OF THE MONTH

Each month, an athlete who is enrolled in the Brewers RBI Program (Reviving Baseball in the Inner Cities) will be recognized for his/her dedication to academics, community involvement, leadership, reliability and monthly performance. This scholarship is a one-year award that varies in amounts from season to season for students who plan to attend or are currently attending a college or university in Wisconsin.

The Miller Park Community Scholarship Program provided its first award in 2013. DID YOU KNOW.....

Stephen Vogt was something of a cult hero in Oakland.....each time he strode to the plate at the Coliseum, fans in the right-field bleachers would greet him with chants of "I believe in Stephen Vogt".....this was modeled after the "I believe that we will win" chant made popular by the U.S. Men's Soccer team during the 2014 World Cup.....the chant was soon accompanied by a banner and T-shirts worn by A's fans.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS
LOGO HISTORY

SEATTLE PILOTS (1969)

The Seattle Pilots used this logo for one season before moving to Milwaukee and becoming the Brewers.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS (1970-1977)

The Barrelman logo was the first identity used by the Brewers. It was first used by the original American Association Brewers in the 1940s.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS (1978-1993)

The “ball-in-glove” logo was introduced in 1978 after a contest which was open to the public drew more than 2,000 entries. An art history student at UW-Eau Claire, Tom Meindel, designed the logo that went on to be the winner. The design of the logo was meant to be recognizable on items as small as a button and as large as a billboard.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS (1994-1999)

As the Brewers celebrated their 25th anniversary in Milwaukee, they introduced a new look. Green was incorporated as a color for the first time in franchise history. The logo resembled an industrial stamp, paying homage to Milwaukee’s industrial history, and gave the team a modern yet old-fashioned look.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS (2000-2017)

This logo was introduced during the final season at County Stadium, giving the team a fresh look heading into Miller Park. The classic yet contemporary look was created by McDill Design of Milwaukee along with Major League Baseball Creative Services. The barley in the logo speaks to the heritage of the Brewers’ name that has been in Milwaukee baseball since 1901.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS (2018-PRESENT)

In 2018, the team officially began using the "M" logo as its primary mark. The logo was first introduced in 2000 as part of the complete redesign of the team's artwork. Like the team's previous primary logo, the barley in the logo speaks to the heritage of the Brewers’ name that has been in Milwaukee baseball since 1901.

ADMISSION TO STADIUM

Enter through the south dock, located in the right-field corner on the Service Level at Miller Park. Credentials are available for pickup six hours prior to game time. Baseball Writers Association of America (BBWAA) cards or working credentials issued by Milwaukee Brewers Media Relations or Major League Baseball are required for admittance. No other credential will be honored. All bags will be checked by security upon entrance to the ballpark.

BOB BETTS PRESS BOX

The Bob Betts Press Box is located on the Loge Level behind home plate. The main press box, as well as the adjacent radio and television booths, have rolling windows that are either entirely open or entirely closed. The press box is a smoke-free environment. There are seven radio and television booths that are reserved for both home and visiting announcers. A quiet work room is located immediately behind the press box and should be used during postgame by radio stringers to send audio. An elevator directly behind the press box will transport media to the Service Level. This elevator is reserved for media and first aid only immediately after the game. The press box is equipped for wireless internet access. Information on accessing the wireless network is posted throughout the press box. The press box is a working area and should be treated as such. The press box is closed to scouts during the game.

CLUBHOUSES

The home clubhouse is located on the Service Level along the first-base side. The visiting clubhouse is located on the Service Level along the third-base side. Only properly credentialed media are allowed in the clubhouses. Media is allowed access beginning 3 1/2 hours prior to game time. The clubhouse closes when team batting practice begins and will remain closed through the game. The training room, X-ray room, kitchen, weight room and video room are all off limits to media. Still photographers are not allowed in the clubhouses without prior approval from the media relations staff. Media are not allowed to use cell phones in the clubhouse.

FIELD

Access to the playing field is available through the runways leading from the respective clubhouses or through the door to the right of the visitor's clubhouse. Only properly credentialed media are allowed on the field. Live or direct transmissions are permitted from the field until 30 minutes prior to game time. The grounds crew and media relations department politely ask media to avoid standing on the grass.

MEDIA INTERVIEW ROOM

The media interview room, located across from the home clubhouse, is a classroom-style facility that features telephone, internet and power service. The room seats 93 media members and contains mult boxes for radio and television usage.

MEDIA RELATIONS OFFICES

The media relations offices are located in the press box at Miller Park. On non-game days, media can visit the offices by going to the main office entrance in the right-field corner of Miller Park and having the receptionist call up to the media relations department.

PARKING

To access the parking area, take the Miller Park Way freeway exit off Interstate 94. The media parking area is located in the Logan Lot, just south of the south dock entrance. Those with season credentials will receive a season parking pass. Those with single-game credentials will be placed on a media list and should check in with a parking attendant at the lot. Parking is extremely limited and available on a first-come, first-served basis. The Logan Lot is for working media only. Those abusing this policy will have their parking privileges and credentials revoked. Media are asked to respect their colleagues by only using their season parking passes while working games.

PHOTOGRAPHER INFORMATION

Photo wells are located on the first and third-base sides on the field near the dugouts as well as behind home plate. There are also two photo wells located on the Club Level near sections 320 and 339. Dark room facilities are located on the Service Level across from the home clubhouse. Internet lines are available for photographers to transmit their photographs electronically. Wireless internet is also available. Please see connection information posted in the press box.

POSTGAME ACCESS

By rule, clubhouses open no later than 10 minutes after the conclusion of the game. At that time, the home manager will be made available in the media interview room. Only properly credentialed media are allowed access. The elevator behind the press box is reserved for media immediately following the conclusion of the game.

PRESS HOSPITALITY AND MEALS

Press hospitality is open to those with a BBWAA card or applicable credentials issued by the Milwaukee Brewers Media Relations Department or Major League Baseball. Meals will be served beginning 2 1/2 hours prior to game time and full meal service will end 30 minutes after the first pitch. A $10 charge is levied for a full meal. Meal tickets can be purchased at the main entrance to the press box. Soda, frozen yogurt and milkshakes are complimentary. The media dining room is located behind the main press box and broadcast booths on the Loge Level. A daily menu is posted at the entrance of the press box.

TELEVISION CREWS

Space to shoot game highlights is available upon request. NO LIVE TRANSMISSION is allowed during games inside Miller Park. Additional game highlights are available through the Miller Park Scoreboard Department.

WORKING CREDENTIALS

Credentials will be issued only to legitimate news-gathering agencies, subject to the discretion of the Milwaukee Brewers Media Relations Department, and must be requested via the MLB credentialing website: www.credentials.mlb.com. All single-game credential requests must be made via the MLB credentialing website at least 24 hours in advance of the game or their fulfillment cannot be assured. Credentials should be displayed at all times and will be checked by stadium security. Daily credentials can be picked up at the south dock at Miller Park no earlier than six hours prior to game time. Under no circumstances should credentials be transferred from person to person or be used by media who are not working the game. Violation of this policy will result in revocation of credentials.

BOB UECKER

Entering his 48th season as a broadcaster for his hometown team, calling games on 620 WTMJ and the Brewers Radio Network, Bob Uecker celebrates his 63rd year in baseball.

Uecker earned the prestigious Ford C. Frick Award in 2003 and will forever be recognized in Baseball's Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, New York. On July 27, 2003, he made one of the most memorable speeches in Hall of Fame history as he left his audience, including former President George H.W. Bush, in tears from laughter.

Also in 2003, Uecker became a member of the Brewers Walk of Fame, which is located near home plate outside Miller Park. In 2012, he was inducted into the National Association of Broadcasters (NAB) Broadcasting Hall of Fame.

On August 31, 2012, Uecker was given a very special honor as a statue bearing his likeness was dedicated outside Miller Park. The ceremony was attended by celebrities, current and former players, family and friends. Uecker's statue joined those previously dedicated to fellow Hall of Famers Hank Aaron, Robin Yount and Commissioner Emeritus Allan H. "Bud" Selig.

On April 25, 2014, a second statue was dedicated in Uecker's honor, this one in the last row of the "Uecker Seats" on Miller Park's Terrace Level. The statue commemorates Uecker's Miller Lite commercials in which he famously delivered the often repeated line, "I must be in the front row!" The statue allows fans a special photo opportunity. Also in 2014, Uecker was commissioned into the Brewers Wall of Honor inaugural class.

Known across the country as "Mr. Baseball," Uecker is highly respected in the industry. In 2001, he was inducted into the Radio Hall of Fame, where he joined such baseball broadcasting luminaries as Vin Scully, Mel Allen, Red Barber, Ernie Harwell and Jack Brickhouse, as well as other American icons such as Bob Hope, Jack Benny, Edward R. Murrow and Orson Welles. In 2011, he was inducted into the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association Hall of Fame.

Uecker has been named Wisconsin Sportscaster of the Year five times during his career and was inducted into the Wisconsin Sports Hall of Fame in 1998. Also, for his efforts, he was inducted into the Wisconsin Performing Artists Hall of Fame in 1993, which was established in 1983 to honor nationally and internationally known performing artists with Wisconsin ties. In 1994, Uecker was elected to the Wisconsin Broadcasters Association Hall of Fame. In January 1995, he earned the Big B.A.T. Award from the Baseball Assistance Team at a dinner in New York City for his continuing support of former Major League stars who are in need of assistance.

Uecker's big break can be traced to a 1969 visit with Al Hirt, a renowned jazz trumpeter from New Orleans. Hirt opened a small nightclub in Atlanta and asked Uecker to come on stage. Hirt was so impressed that he arranged an appearance for Uecker on The Tonight Show, starring Johnny Carson. Uecker became one of Carson's favorite guests, making 100+ appearances before Carson retired in 1992. He also made appearances on The Mike Douglas and Merv Griffin Shows, Late Night with David Letterman and as guest host on Saturday Night Live.

Uecker became a national celebrity, and the ABC Network took advantage of his popularity. He made appearances on The Superstars and The Midnight Special, which opened the door for more high-profile appearances.

A versatile talent, Uecker's credits go far beyond guest appearances and play-by-play. In 1985, he launched a television acting career as one of the stars of ABC's sitcom Mr. Belvedere, which put 122 episodes into syndication. He also hosted two syndicated television shows, Bob Uecker's Wacky World of Sports and Bob Uecker's War of the Stars.

Uecker was one of the Miller Lite All-Stars in popular commercials for the beer during the 1980s. He was also cast as a radio announcer in the movie Major League, which was filmed at County Stadium, and Major League II. Uecker even made appearances on the pro wrestling circuit, serving as a host at WrestleMania III and WrestleMania IV, earning him a spot in the WWE Hall of Fame in 2010.

Uecker's experience broadcasting Brewers games both on radio and television gained him national recognition as he went on to serve as color commentator for ABC Sports coverage of Monday Night Baseball, the League Championship Series and World Series.

Uecker's accomplishments are not limited to the electronic medium. He authored a book entitled Catcher in the Wry, a humorous look back on the years he spent as a catcher with the Milwaukee/Atlanta Braves, St. Louis Cardinals and Philadelphia Phillies during six seasons in the Major Leagues. One of his career highlights as a player came in 1964, when he was a member of the world champion St. Louis Cardinals.

Despite his national attention and success, Uecker never forgot his roots. In 2015, he was honored with the Lombardi Foundation's Award of Excellence for his role in helping raise funds and awareness for cancer research. His philanthropic efforts have also benefitted several local organizations, including the United Performing Arts Fund, the Midwest Athletes Against Childhood Cancer Fund, the Milwaukee Symphony, the Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Milwaukee and Big Brothers/Big Sisters.

In addition, Uecker is an advocate for organizations that battle cystic fibrosis and heart disease, and is involved with the Wisconsin Department of Tourism and the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

Jeff Levering is entering his fourth season with the Brewers after joining the organization in January 2015.

Levering began his professional broadcasting career in 2005 as a field reporter and associate producer for FOX Sports West/Prime Ticket in Los Angeles, covering the Angels, Lakers and UCLA.

Levering received his bachelor's degree in broadcast journalism from Chapman University in Orange, California, where he also played baseball all four years. He was the starting designated hitter on the 2003 D-III national championship team.

Jeff and his wife, Ashley, have two children, son, Brock, and daughter, Logan. Levering tweets from @JLevering4.

LANE GRINDLE

Lane Grindle begins his third season with the Brewers after joining the radio broadcast team in February 2016. Throughout the season, he teams with Jeff Levering during games missed by Hall of Famer Bob Uecker.

Grindle joined the Brewers following 10 seasons (2006-15) behind the microphone for University of Nebraska baseball radio broadcasts on the Husker Sports Network. He spent his first two seasons as the Cornhuskers' pre/postgame host prior to becoming the play-by-play announcer in 2008. TELEVISION ANNOUNCERS

BRIAN ANDERSON

Brian Anderson begins his 12th season as a Major League broadcaster after being named Brewers play-by-play announcer on January 10, 2007.

Anderson is a three-time recipient of the Wisconsin Sportscaster of the Year Award, presented by the National Sports Media Association (2013, 2014 and 2017).

In addition to his position on Brewers telecasts, Anderson has been tabbed to do play-by-play for TBS's coverage of the postseason for the past 10 seasons. Notable events in which he has been behind the mic include Roy Halladay's historic no-hitter for the Philadelphia Phillies in Game 1 of the 2010 NLDS vs. Cincinnati and the Brewers-Cardinals NLCS in 2011. Anderson's role with TBS has since increased to include calling play-by-play for Turner Sports' Sunday MLB on TBS package in each of the past eight years. He will continue to call select Sunday national games in 2018.

Outside of baseball, he has covered the NCAA Basketball Tournament for Turner/CBS Sports since 2012, the NBA on TNT since 2014 and the NFL on CBS in 2014. He also handles play-by-play duties for college basketball on FOX Sports and the Big Ten Network during the regular season.

Anderson joined the Brewers from the Golf Channel, where he was a play-by-play announcer from 2003-06. In his role there, he served as a host for a variety of the network's events, including the PGA Tour and Nationwide Tour. Anderson also worked at FOX Sports Southwest, calling NCAA college basketball from 2002-07 and serving as a sideline reporter for the San Antonio Spurs from 1999-2007, where he saw the Spurs win three NBA championships.

From 1998-2000, Anderson handled Minor League and Little League Baseball telecasts for ESPN. He received his start in baseball with the Double-A San Antonio Missions of the Texas League, serving as a radio/television play-by-play announcer from 1994-2003.

Anderson played catcher on the nationally-ranked baseball team at St. Mary's University (Texas) and graduated cum laude from the school in 1993 with a degree in English-communications. His brother, Mike, had a stint in the majors as a pitcher with the Cincinnati Reds (1993) and is currently a special assistant to the general manager with the Texas Rangers.

Brian and his wife, Michele, and daughter, Maddy, reside in Hartland, Wisconsin. He is on Twitter at @BAndersonPxP.

BILL SCHROEDER

Bill Schroeder enters his 24th season as color commentator on Brewers telecasts.

Schroeder began his career behind the microphone in 1995 following a distinguished playing career as a catcher. Only Hall of Famer Bob Uecker has broadcast more games in franchise history. Among his accomplishments, Schroeder was enshrined on the prestigious Brewers Wall of Honor on July 17, 2015.

For the past 15 winters, Schroeder has also served as the coordinator of Brewers Fantasy Camp. The camp is always a hit, selling out each year at the Brewers' Spring Training home in Phoenix, Arizona.

Schroeder spent eight seasons (1983-90) in the majors with the Brewers and California Angels, posting a career-best .332 batting average in 1987. He caught Juan Nieves's no-hitter on April 15, 1987 at Baltimore in the midst of the Brewers' Major League record-tying 13-0 start. In addition, he clubbed a career-high 14 home runs and had 42 RBI in a backup role that season. Schroeder was traded to the Angels following the 1988 campaign before retiring in 1990.

Born in Baltimore and raised in Princeton, New Jersey, Schroeder graduated from West Windsor Plainsboro High School, where he earned All-State honors as a junior and senior. He attended Clemson University, leading the Tigers to the Atlantic Coast Conference title in 1978 and 1979.

"Rock" and his wife, Kate, reside in New Berlin, Wisconsin. He has two daughters, Lindsey and Mallory, a son, Billy, and two granddaughters, Madelyn and Presley. The couple also has a miniature dachshund named Rupert.

Schroeder's book, If These Walls Could Talk: Milwaukee Brewers, which was written with Drew Olson, was published in 2016. He tweets from @BrewersFanCamp.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS

MASCOTS

BERNIE BREWER

Perhaps as much a part of Milwaukee's baseball history as the players, Bernie Brewer, the official team mascot, has become a symbol of what is good about being a fan of the Brewers.

THE HISTORY OF BERNIE BREWER

The concept of a team mascot first emerged back in 1970 when the expansion team needed to draw more fans to the ballpark. That year, the original "Bernie Brewer," 69-year-old Milt Mason, camped out in a trailer atop the scoreboard in late June, vowing not to come down until a crowd of at least 40,000 attended a game. A bat day crowd of 44,387 showed up to bring their adopted hero down from his perch on August 16.

The demand for Bernie Brewer grew, and by 1973, he emerged as a character who cheered on the home team from a beer-barreled chalet. He would slide down from his perch into a beer stein following each Brewers home run and victory. Bernie Brewer became a fixture at home games through the organization's powerful years, when homers came with regularity for teams known as "Bambi's Bombers" and "Harvey's Wallbangers."

In 1984, the Brewers rebuilt the bleachers, replacing Bernie's Chalet with a sound tower, sending the mascot into temporary retirement. But, by popular demand in 1993, Bernie returned and has been a fixture at every home game since.

In April 2010, Bernie joined Twitter. He has one of the largest followings among Major League Baseball mascots on the social network. Fans can follow him on Twitter at @Bernie_Brewer.

JOHNSONVILLE FAMOUS RACING SAUSAGES

Legend has it that the Johnsonville Famous Racing Sausages started to take shape in the early 1990s. In their formative years, they were little more than a cartoon running a virtual race every home game on the giant scoreboard in center field at County Stadium.

As the movement began to take shape and a buzz developed about our racing weenies, eventually the Bratwurst (#1), Polish (#2) and Italian (#3) made their debuts out of the left-field corner of County Stadium on select Sundays throughout the season. What started as a fun way to entertain many of the children attending afternoon games became an instant hit. The three sausages added a fourth when Hot Dog (#4) came on board in the middle of the 1990s.

The race grew in popularity among young and old alike. During the 2000 season - the final year of County Stadium - the virtual race was thrown out and the actual sausages began to race every game.

This tradition continued as the Brewers moved across the parking lot to Miller Park in 2001. Running with the Sausages took on a life of its own as having an 'in' with the team might mean the chance to dive into the costume and scurry along the warning track prior to the seventh inning. Hideo Nomo, Pat Meares and Geoff Jenkins are just three of the lucky players to boast "Racing Sausage" among their personal accolades. In 2007, Chorizo (#5) permanently joined the Racing Sausages after a one-game debut in 2006.

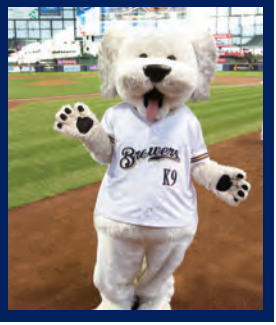
2017 RACE RESULTS

Bratwurst	7
Polish	27
Italian	9
Hot Dog	22
Chorizo	19

BARRELMAN

In 2015, Barrelman made his debut as a team mascot. Barrelman served as the primary Brewers logo from the team's first season in Milwaukee (1970) through the 1977 season. The iconic logo was first used by the original American Association Brewers in the 1940s.

HANK MASCOT



After Hank's newly-found fame became too much for one dog to handle, the Hank walkabout was introduced during Wisconsin Humane Society Day at Miller Park on September 13, 2014.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS
HANK "THE BALLPARK PUP"

The morning of February 17, 2014 dawned sunny and warm in Phoenix, not unlike most of the days that the Milwaukee Brewers see at their Maryvale Spring Training headquarters. But what first seemed like an ordinary day soon became much more, all because of a visit from a four-legged friend.

Many major metro areas are overwhelmed with a problem of stray animals, and Maryvale/Phoenix is no different. Small dogs are occasionally seen wandering the outskirts of the Brewers' training fields, but they are typically too scared to interact with anyone on site. That day, though, a scruffy, dirty, and slightly injured little dog wandered up to staff at the Brewers' Spring Training camp and made himself at home. This pup was fearless, and he knew a good thing when he saw it. Not long after, the little guy was named Hank (after the great Hank Aaron), and his story was just starting.

Hank was cared for by staff on-site, and soon Brewers coach Ed Sedar became his unofficial guardian. Sedar would feed Hank from the clubhouse buffet each day, and he quickly became friendly with various players and staff. It was clear, though, that the priority was to find Hank's home, and the Brewers set out to do just that.

By using their social and traditional media channels, the Brewers posted regular updates on Hank's exploits. Every day, Hank would make visits to the team's clubhouse, where he interacted with players and coaches at their lockers. Later, Hank went from station to station with the players as they participated in drills, ran occasionally with the Johnsonville Famous Racing Sausages, and hosted meet-and-greets with visiting players, celebrities and fans. Outfitted in a Brewers jersey, photos and updates of Hank's activities were posted every day by the Brewers, and it wasn't long before national media picked up on the story.

Locally, nationally and internationally, Hank's story appeared everywhere – ABC World News Tonight, The Today Show, People Magazine, The Tonight Show and countless others all featured Hank's heart-warming tale, and the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel ran photos and stories about Hank virtually every day for over a month.

What didn't happen, though, was just as surprising. Despite the team's best efforts, nobody came forward to claim Hank as their lost pet. Working with the Wisconsin Humane Society, however, the Brewers arranged to have Hank adopted by a team executive, and Hank's forever home shifted north.

Hank's popularity in Milwaukee preceded his arrival to the city, and the Brewers rolled out a line of merchandise to celebrate this popularity. In addition, the team partnered with the Wisconsin Humane Society to donate 20% of the retail sales from all Hank items to the "Hank Fund." By September, the fund had reached a level of $150,000 through this contribution.

Hank's story in Milwaukee included an Opening Day introduction on the field, a sold-out bobblehead night, photo sessions and meet-and-greets with fans at games, a Hank House (dog house) built to host Hank on his Miller Park visits, and a full-size "walkabout" mascot in Hank's likeness.

In January 2015, Hank was named "Dog of the Year" at the CW Network's World Dog Awards in Los Angeles. The award was presented to the canine who made the biggest impact on pop culture in 2014.

Hank is welcomed warmly by his friends Bernie Brewer and the Johnsonville Famous Racing Sausages. But what made Hank unique was how he came to be part of the organization. The Brewers didn't find Hank; Hank found the Brewers.

MARYVALE BASEBALL PARK

The Brewers return to Arizona for their 21st spring at Maryvale Baseball Park. The facility, which opened in 1998, includes 7,000 permanent seats as well as room for 4,000 on the lawn. The complex features eight baseball fields, including two half-fields. The minor-league players also train at the complex across the parking lot from the Major League facility.

On November 15, 2017, the Phoenix City Council voted in favor of a plan to renovate Maryvale Baseball Park. The plan keeps the Brewers in Maryvale through at least the year 2042, the second-longest commitment in the Cactus League. Construction is scheduled to begin in late March 2018 and be substantially completed by the start of 2019 Spring Training. The improvements to the facility that will be made by the Brewers include a 65,000 square-foot clubhouse and office building, a wider first-base concourse, new concessions and restrooms, a new kids play area, a new retail and ticketing building, and enhanced parking. A new practice field that mimics the dimensions of Miller Park will also be produced.

The Brewers will invest over $55 million for the project and assume operation and maintenance of the facility. The city of Phoenix will contribute $2 million a year for the next five years ($10 million total) for renovations. This marks the first significant renovation of a Cactus League facility primarily paid for by a team. Also part of the approved plan, the Brewers will partner with Grand Canyon University on a “Learning Lounge” at Maryvale Baseball Park, through which local students will have access to free tutoring. The renovation, which is being designed by HKS, Inc. with Mortenson Construction serving as general contractor, will open in February of 2019.

John F. Long, a longtime Valley developer, donated 56 acres of land to make this complex a reality. The primary architect of the ballpark was Ellerbe Beckett of Phoenix. Their work at Maryvale led to several awards in 1998, including the Architecture Accessibility Award from the Mayor's Commission on Disability Issues, the Citation Award from the Arizona Chapter of the American Institute of Architects, and the Merit Award from the Western Mountain Region of the American Institute of Architects.

Rendering of renovated Maryvale Baseball Park, set to be complete in February 2019.
